

HÔTEL BARRIÈRE
LES NEIGES
COURCHEVEL

A MEMBER OF
THE LEADING HOTELS
OF THE WORLD

If you believe that elegance and pleasure go hand in hand like life and celebration, that sitting around a table playing cards is like taking the stage with your heart in your mouth, if you are devoted to everything gourmet and you like to share it with others, then you have the Barrière spirit. You will find this spirit in our hotels, casinos, restaurants and resorts. It continues a tradition that has never stopped reinventing itself, an easy charm made up of elegance, sensuality and impertinence, known throughout the world as the French art de vivre.

Barrière, a spirit above all else.

FRENCH ELEGANCE HITS THE MOUNTAINS

---

The Barrière Group is a vision. Barrière is also a family, standing united, adventurous, wise and elegant. Finally, Barrière is a hundred year old group that has successfully surprised, whilst reinventing itself.

A guarantee of French excellence and savoir-faire, this temple of discreet and delicate luxury has gained and maintained a loyal and elegant clientèle base for more than a century. Founded in 1912 by François André and subsequently developed and managed by Lucien Barrière, Diane Barrière-Desseigne and Dominique Desseigne, Barrière has gone through many stages to become market leader in French casinos and the luxury hotel industry.

Through its exceptional properties, the Group represents French symbols of prestige, refinement and elegance, with the excellence of its service a number one priority. With Les Neiges, Barrière is stepping foot in the mountains for the first time in its history.

COURCHEVEL, A WHITE PARADISE

At the heart of the French Alps, Courchevel invites you to discover a beautiful natural environment with more than 600 km of runs, stunning views with the legendary Mont Blanc as your backdrop.

In this natural setting, experience precious moments by the fireside or enjoy a wonderful descent in a white paradise.

Let your mind wander as you explore the immaculate white snowy slopes, walk through the famous resort where the shop windows sparkle, or rock to the beat at nightfall.

From this coming winter, Courchevel is set to be the backdrop to your snow-capped memories.

ROOMS & SUITES

Set against a backdrop of snow-capped summits, the 42 generously sized rooms and suites boast a warm, welcoming atmosphere and refined style which guests will love. Each room and suite has its own unique personality, combining alpine charm with a contemporary feel.

Inspired by the natural setting and materials, interior designer Nathalie Rayan tells the story of the mountains, inviting you to relax. The use of noble materials such as cashmere, velvet and fur make this invitation to relax even more welcoming.

Sunny balconies and terraces offer impressive views over the mountains; a charming setting for walkers.

For an intimate stay in the mountains, the spacious suites invite you to share precious moments next to the fireplace. Combining elegance and charm, these unique suites reveal a warm, welcoming world, with noble materials and custom-made pieces of furniture.

Decorated in natural tones, the bathrooms invite you to relax and enjoy the well-being effects of a steam room after a day on the slopes. A dedicated butler is available at all times to look after guests' well-being and ensure they enjoy an unforgettable stay.

Rooms and suites may be adjoined with connecting rooms or privatised to provide guests with a unique shared living area, whilst retaining their own personal space.

CULINARY DELIGHTS

Discover unique culinary experiences that combine French gastronomy, local flavours and foreign influences so you can savour precious moments at the heart of the Alps.

Fouquet's

Fouquet's, the well-known Parisian brasserie is opening its doors in Courchevel. Its traditional image has been relooked in favour of a snowy winter version, with a woodburning fire and comfortable seats. Enjoy French culinary classics, as well as traditional dishes inspired by local flavours. From the amuse-bouche right through to dessert, the chef will take your taste buds on a journey, promising a unique experience with each mouthful. Remaining loyal to the traditional cuisine of Parisian brasseries, with a great focus on quality ingredients, it makes no apologies for revisiting dishes to give them a new lease of life. The cuisine here is based on excellent produce and technical expertise, which in turn means the promise of an unforgettable culinary experience for you.

Discover Argentinian flavours with 2 starred Michelin chef Mauro Colagreco, who brings a more contemporary gastronomic format to the Argentinian ritual of «asado». Travel to the heart of Patagonia as you savour delicious authentic cuisine. Embark on a unique culinary journey taking in Argentina's traditional flavours with a modern twist, whilst respecting its rich history and soaking up the lively atmosphere.

The restaurant's welcoming interior design is a reflection of its hospitality, where tradition and modernity combine to create the unique, addictive and inventive cuisine served with infinite finesse. Mauro Colagreco celebrates the art of getting together as a family or with friends, by preparing a selection of dishes to share in an atmosphere that is both elegant and cosy. At lunchtime, the sunny terrace is the place to be as the chef conjures up a delicious mixed grill.

The background image shows a luxurious spa interior. In the foreground, there are several wooden lounge chairs with white cushions arranged on a light-colored tiled floor. A large, cylindrical column covered in a colorful mosaic of small tiles stands prominently on the right. In the background, a large window or glass wall allows natural light to enter, and a curved wooden structure is visible on the left. The overall atmosphere is warm and relaxing.
